

Minutes of the October 28th 2007 GAS General Meeting

Venue: The Aidam Residence

Financials:

Book balance as at September 27th.

Christmas Party:

This year's Christmas Party will take place on December 22nd. Alex and Mabel Akoto graciously offered to host the Party to enable GAS hold the party beyond the rental hall closing time of 11pm and avoid paying more than $600 in hall rental and insurance fees. Members are being requested to contribute $10 per individual or $15 per family to help defray costs associated with the party.

Independence Day:

Planning continues for the 2008 Independence Day Commemoration. GAS kids have began choir rehearsals and GAS kids of all ages are encouraged to participate.

Annual Sacramento Food Bank sponsored "Run to Feed the Hungry:"

This year's "Run to Feed the Hungry" will take place on Thanksgiving Day (November 22nd) starting at 7am. Over the past few years GAS has supported the Sacramento Food Bank by volunteering at event. GAS members are encouraged to turn out to help out at this year's event as well. Parents may bring along their older children (ages 10 and above) who can assist at the event. All volunteers are encouraged to pre-register as soon as possible. Please contact Osam Dadzie if you would like to volunteer or have any questions.

Other Matters:

Karene Beecham is working on setting up a catering business and will be providing details to GAS members as she moves forward with her plans.

Next Meeting:

The next meeting will be held at Osam Dadzie's residence. Details on date and time will be provided prior to the meeting.
